

SSA Cobb Age Group Meeting Information

SSA Cobb will be hosting age group specific meetings. Attendance is encouraged for those members that are new to our program or new to the age group that their child will be playing in. It is also recommended for ALL volunteer head and assistant coaches to attend, along with parents who are interested in coaching their child's rec team this season.

These informational age group meetings are for parents/guardians only and provide all of the information you need before the spring rec season begins.

A meeting summary will be distributed to members containing an overview of the information provided once age group meetings have concluded.

Meetings are divided by age group - Please attend the meeting based on the age group your child is registered to play.
