SSA "Cobb Juniors" Program

Cobb Juniors provides Recreational players 6 to 14 years of age an opportunity to participate in a professional training environment to enhance their technical ability and understanding of the game. The purpose of Cobb Juniors is to provide players who love the game a specialized training program for them to acquire a solid foundation through reinforcement of soccer concepts that promote player development. Cobb Juniors does not replace the Recreational program, but provides an opportunity for additional training from licensed Academy and Select coaches at SSA. It is recommended, not required, that a player have at least one full year of organized soccer experience on a team prior to entering this program.

Objectives

- Expose players to a professional coaching environment with the focus on player development
- Help prepare players for higher-level soccer
- Provide the opportunity for players to become more technically and tactically competent
- Provide the environment for players to become more creative and passionate about soccer
- Help parents become aware as to the progression through the club

Curriculum

Cobb Juniors provides challenging training sessions that are a key ingredient to the personal development of the player. Sessions are conducted by licensed SSA Academy and Select coaches, and activities are designed to maximize comfort with the ball and allow players to improve technically (skills), tactically (decision making), physically (fitness), and psychologically (mental toughness).

Training sessions are an hour and a half in duration and consist of four primary components:

- Dribbling – Ball mastery with both feet including moves, such as changes of direction, stops and starts, and fakes and feints to ensure all players become comfortable with the ball in any situation
- Passing and Receiving – Ball striking using different surfaces of the feet to create different deliveries, and ability of the player's first touch to control the ball effectively
- Finishing – Instinctive shot taking and shooting with accuracy and power using different shooting techniques
- Small Sided Games – Provide the opportunity for players to perfect technique and improve decision making and speed of play in situations only the game can present
