

SPECTATORS CODE OF CONDUCT

It shall be against the rules of the Fairfield SAY Area for a spectator, coach or player to threaten, harass, or intimidate soccer officials in any way. This includes before, during or after all games sanctioned by the Fairfield SAY Area. Failure to comply with this rule could mean immediate expulsion from the game and field area (in sight of or in earshot of the official) and/or loss of game by judgment of the Area Disciplinary Board. Any physical contact with a soccer official could result in legal action by the Fairfield Area SAY or others.

Note: Any spectator ejected from a game may have a one game suspension issued at the direction of the Area Disciplinary Board to be served at the team's next home game.

Coaches are responsible for the conduct of their spectators. Spectator misconduct may result in the coach receiving a yellow and/or red card. It could also result in the suspension of the game and the outcome of which would then be decided by the Area Disciplinary Board (i.e. game forfeiture, replaying of games less than ½ in duration, declaring a winner of games over ½ in duration.)
