Jason has coached for WFC Rangers for more than 15 years, making him one of the club's longest-serving and most-successful coaches. A native of Ireland, Jason grew up playing for Dublin-based Bluebell United and Shamrock Rovers, current champions of Ireland. Jason immigrated to the United States at 20, where he played soccer at Spokane Falls Community College under former Dutch national youth team player and legendary coach Cor Van Der Meer. His highlights with WFC Rangers include coaching some of the club's top players, leading team tours to England and Ireland, and coaching a team to the finals of the 2010 Washington State Challenge Cup. Jason holds the USSF 'D' license and his teams are noted for playing well-organized, attractive and effective soccer.
