I. Purpose

Hobgood Park strives to provide, maintain and develop quality and wholesome youth recreational sports activities and facilities for both girls and boys in our community. All of our coaches and volunteers place an emphasis on teaching fundamental skills and sportsmanship to the players within the league. While coaching or volunteering, individuals may receive personal information regarding players or parents. This information is considered "privileged." This policy outlines what information is not permitted to be released by individuals representing Hobgood Park.

II. Scope

This policy applies only to those individuals who are responsible for managing information related to Hobgood Park.

IV. Policy

Any individual representing Hobgood Park (e.g., volunteer, coach, etc.) may receive personal information regarding players and parents. This information is considered "privileged" and may not be disclosed to outside parties. Any individual found releasing "privileged" information may be banned from Hobgood Park and/or face legal action.

V. Approval/Revision
