Some league teams have had issues making games up on Mondays. Some teams want to make them up, others do not.

Treasurer report, Trudy Wood- income for the month of May was $22,218.41; expenses for the month of May was $19,043.25; the beginning balance was $39,837.08 and the current balance is $42,129.64.

Mike Sturdevant- all umpire issues have been resolved. Please contact Mike with any further issues.

The 16U/18U tournament was a huge success! Very few hiccups.

President, Scott Smith, met with the local lacrosse organization, looking to form a proposition to play girls lacrosse at VGSA. Nick Underland, the representative of the girl's organization, presented a proposed realignment of our current fields to demonstrate how a few of our VGSA fields can be converted to play lacrosse. A meeting with county official, Eric Christianson, will take place on June 24th, 2014.

Teams already inquiring about Fall Softball. It has been suggested that one of the larger fastpitch teams in Vancouver, sponsor Fall Ball.

George Countryman has been proposing the idea of forming a kick ball league/event for the elementary and middle schools.
