

Atlanta Youth Football League

Coaches Code of Conduct

Failure to comply will result in warning, suspension, dismissal from the league and all AYFL activities or other action as deemed appropriate by the AYFL President and Executive Board.

1. Never criticize players, assistant coaches, referees, or other league personnel in front of spectators. Reserve constructive criticism for private, or in the presence of the team should it benefit them.
2. Accept decisions of the game officials on the field and league officials as being fair and called to the best of the official's ability.
3. Do not criticize any opposing team or club, its players, coaches, team moms or fans by word of mouth, in writing, emails, tweets, Facebook or by gestures.
4. Do not criticize the AYFL or any AYFL Member Association by word of mouth in writing, emails, tweets, Facebook, Instagram, or gestures; as a coach you are responsible for enforcing this with the parents or guardians of players on the team. Understand it is a privilege to coach in this association.
5. Encourage good academic performance by your players. Emphasize that good athletes strive to be good students.
6. Strive to make every football activity serve as a training ground for life and a basis for good mental and physical health.
7. Emphasize winning the game is result of good teamwork.
8. Together with game officials, be jointly responsible for the conduct and control of the team, fans, and spectators. Any fan that becomes a nuisance and is out of control shall be asked to leave and may result in suspension or further disciplinary actions up to dismissal from team and forfeiture of all registration fees and restriction from present and future participation in any AYFL activity.
9. Refrain from using abusive and profane language before anyone.
10. Coaches, players and team personnel are not to receive any kind of payment in cash services as a member of AYFL.
11. Do not allow ineligible player to participate in a game.
12. Do not deliberately provoke unsportsmanlike conduct.
13. Refrain from the drinking of alcoholic beverages on the game and practice fields. Do not engage in AYFL coaching or refereeing activities while under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substances.
14. Remove from a game or practice any player when even a slightly in doubt of their health (whether or not as a result of injury) until competent medical advice is available.
15. Control your fans. Remember, as a team coach, you are responsible for your team, and fan reaction will usually be in step with your reaction. When you are at AYFL events (even if your team is not in the game) help control fans that are overreacting.
16. Use only practice field assigned to your team by the AYFL of your member association. This is for insurance purposes. Do not change to a different field unless directed by the AYFL Board or your member association.
17. Uphold all policies rules and regulations regarding sports programs.
18. Do not associate AYFL with any personal endeavors or public events such as but not limited to, camps or tournaments. AYFL will not indemnify or insure any outside activity without prior Executive Board approval.

I have read and agree to abide by the above Atlanta Youth Football League Coaches Code of Conduct.
