

CAPITAL DISTRICT GIRLS BASKETBALL LEAGUE

CDGBL Spectator Code of Conduct

- Spectators are an important part of the games and are encouraged to conform to accepted standards of good sportsmanship and behavior.
- Spectators should at all times respect officials, visiting coaches and players and extend all courtesies to them.
- Enthusiastic cheering for one's own team is encouraged.
- Booing, whistling, stamping of the feet, and disrespectful remarks shall be avoided and may result in removal from the premises.
- Spectators shall refrain from any conduct which ridicules a referee, league official, opposing player, team or the game itself. Negative comments will not be tolerated and may result in a spectator being asked to leave the premises.
- There will be no ringing of bells, sounding of horns, or other noise makers at indoor contests during play. Anyone who does not abide by this rule will be asked to leave the premises.
- The throwing of debris, confetti, or other objects from the stands is prohibited. Offending individuals will be asked to leave the premises.
- During a free throw in basketball, all courtesies should be extended.
- Spectators should encourage each other to observe courteous behavior. Improper behavior should be reported to the club coordinator.
- Spectators will respect and obey all officials and club coordinators (or their designee) at athletic contests.
- Spectators who are not adhering to these guidelines may be asked to leave the premises.
- Any spectator ejected from a game site will not be allowed to attend the next league-affiliated game. Any spectator ejected a second time will not be able to attend any further league-affiliated games for the remainder of the season.
- Any spectator who physically or verbally abuses or threatens an official will be banned for the remainder of the season and may face action by the local Police Department.
