Coaches Code of Conduct

The Berlin Youth Soccer Association (BYSA) has been formed to instill in the youth of Berlin the principles of good citizenship, good sportsmanship, and teamwork through the knowledge of and participation in the competitive sport of soccer. Our players, parents, opponents, coaches, and officials are to be treated with respect at all times. Following the lead of the Connecticut Junior Soccer Association, there shall be a ZERO TOLERANCE policy for misconduct or violent/dangerous actions by players, parents, coaches, referees or any other BYSA members.

To ensure that the principles of good citizenship, sportsmanship, and mutual respect among players, parents, coaches, referees and other BYSA members, this Code of Conduct has been established by BYSA. It is the obligation of all BYSA members, coaches, parents, and volunteers, to create and maintain an

All team officials are required to acknowledge that they are aware of the protocol for concussions set by the Center for Disease Control.

Connecticut Junior Soccer Association, the "Company," may obtain information about you from a third-party consumer reporting agency for employment purposes. Thus, you may be the subject of a "consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living. These reports may contain information regarding your criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ("driving records"), verification of your education or employment history (including income), or other background checks. You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time, to request whether a consumer report has been run about you and to request a copy of your report. These searches will be conducted by JD Palatine, LLC dba JDP, 855-940-3232, One Oxford Centre 301 Grant Street, Suite 4300, Pittsburgh PA 15219, jdp.com. To the extent permitted by law, the Company may obtain consumer reports from any outside organization throughout the course of your employment.

Mandated Reporter v29784 *

On February 14, 2018, the Protecting Young Victims from Sexual Abuse and Safe Sport Authorization Act of 2017 was signed into law and became effective immediately. Below are additional details on the specific mandatory reporting of child abuse requirements included in the new legislation because these requirements may impact you immediately: The persons who are required to report suspected child abuse, including sexual abuse, now include all adults who are authorized to interact with minor or amateur athletes by a national governing body, a member of a national governing body or an amateur sports organization that participates in interstate or international amateur athletic competition. In the state of Connecticut, one must report within 12 hours to the Department of Children and Families or law enforcement. If that initial report is oral, a written report must be submitted to the Commissioner of Children and Families within 48 hours. Child abuse is defined as physical or mental injury, sexual abuse or exploitation, or negligent treatment of a child. An individual who is required, but fails, to report suspected child abuse is subject to criminal penalties including fines and up to one (1) year in jail. By checking the box I acknowledge that I am a mandated reporter
